

June 26, 2008

Commission Chairman Ross Johnson
Fair Political Practices Commission
428 J Street, Suite 620
Sacramento, CA 95814-2329

Dear Chairman Johnson:

The free meals, concert tickets, and admissions that the board members of the OCFEC are handing out like Halloween candy must stop! I have read about this for months in our local newspaper, and at their most recent meeting, this board did not agree to come into compliance with state regulations yet again. Considering this is the third time in recent history that the OCFEC has been in non-compliance, it is time that our government to accept the fact that this board is in-capable of self control.

In August, the Fair Political Practices Commission is considering limiting the amount of tickets or gifts these individuals can take in the future. I sincerely hope this occurs. Every time I hear of such acts, I give up a little more faith in our politicians and government. Please use all of the powers of office our state has bestowed on you in order to stop this outrageous behavior!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Mark Correa". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Mark Correa
Newport Beach